

"The Fieldtrip Gals!" LLC present Fabulous Field Trip Ideas & Destinations for Elizabeth City, NC & the surrounding region

Near Elizabeth City:

NC Estuarium - Washington, NC (environment; science; flora/fauna)

Bath State Historical Site - Bath, NC (NC history; pirates; economy: science; archeology)

Mattamuskeet National Wildlife Refuge - Swan Quarter, NC (migratory birds & their routes)

Somerset Place State Historic Site - Creswell, NC (slave plantation; economy; farming; social studies)

Ft. Branch Civil War Site - near Hamilton, NC (Civil War history)

Ft. Raleigh National Historic Park - Manteo, NC (American history; settlement; geography; social studies)

Jockey's Ridge State Park - Nag's Head, NC (environment; nature)

Wright Brothers National Monument - Kill Devil Hills, NC (aviation; history; design & development)

Historic Edenton State Historic Site - Edenton, NC (pre-colonial history to Civil Warfare)

Newbold-Wright House - near Hertford, NC (colonial NC; architecture)

Leigh's Plantation - (architecture; slave labor; history)

Historic Halifax State Historical Site - (government; history; industry)

In Elizabeth City:

Arts of the Albemarle Gallery (arts, crafts, social studies; economy)

Coast Guard Support Center (for public visits, contact Pub. Affairs)

(military history; ships)

Historic Walking Tours & Tea (appts. Only) (American & NC history; plant history; etiquette)

Elizabeth City State University Planetarium (astronomy)

Hide-n-Woods Gardens (special needs; gardening; food crops; technology)

Museum of the Albemarle (over 400 years of American history; artifacts)

Port Discover (science; environment; aviation)

Tcom (airships; aerostats, blimps) Public tours on Wednesdays only

*This is our list of favorites, you may find more.
Copyrighted 2008 by FTG